

Okada Manila supports the City Government of Paranaque's book launch of "Paranaque: A Mega City By the Bay"

The Paranaque City government and Media Touchstone Ventures Inc. (MTVi) launched its coffee table book, "Paranaque: A Mega City By the Bay" last September 15, 2022.

The event was graced by Mayor Eric Olivarez, Congressman Edwin Olivarez, and author Melandrew T. Velasco, Okada Manila executives Board Director, CFO, and Treasurer Hans Van der Sande, Board Director James Lorenzana, and Chief Legal Officer Atty. Joemer Perez.

In addition to co-sponsoring the launch, Okada Manila is known to be a model company for the City of Paranaque as it is consistently recognized as one of its top taxpayers for several years in a row.

The coffee table book presents the nine-year accomplishments of former Paranaque City Mayor Edwin Olivarez, who now represents the city's first district in the House of Representatives. The book covers the city's infrastructures for development, initiatives towards making Paranaque an environment-friendly and livable city, good governance, peace and order, social welfare services, education, and employment and livelihood.

Paranaque City officials and distinguished guests celebrate the launch of the legacy coffee table book.

(L-R) Okada Manila Chief Legal Officer Atty. Joemer Perez. and Board Director, CFO, and Treasurer Hans Van der Sande attended the event in support of the Paranaque City Government.
