PRESS RELEASE

The Best Integrated Resort award celebrates Okada Manila's world-class accommodations, dining, retail, entertainment, and gaming offerings. With its iconic interiors, unique design, and state-of-the-art facilities, Okada Manila has become a favorite destination for both local and international guests. The award also highlights the resort's strong brand recognition and customer loyalty, which have been key factors in its continued success.

The Best Sustainability Program award recognizes Okada Manila's Green Heart signature sustainability program, which focuses on six key pillars: waste management, energy efficiency, water conservation, talent and community, safety, security and welfare, and responsible gaming.

"We are honored to receive the Asia Gaming Award for Best Integrated Resort and Best Sustainable Program for Okada Green Heart," said Byron Yip, Okada Manila President and COO. "Okada Manila remains committed to continue to deliver exceptional experiences for our guests, while we also play a crucial role in driving forward sustainable tourism in the country."

Recently, Okada Manila earned its sixth consecutive Forbes five-star integrated resort status and became the first integrated resort in the Philippines to receive the Forbes Travel Guide VERIFIED Responsible Hospitality badge, an esteemed recognition affirming the resort's unwavering commitment to sustainability, environmental protection, and the well-being of its employees, guests, and communities.

With these recent accolades, Okada Manila reaffirms its commitment to serve its guests with its unique blend of Filipino warmth and Japanese excellence, providing world-class experiences while leading the charge in sustainability and social responsibility.
