Okada Manila Shines a Light on Sustainability for Earth Hour 2025

MANILA, 21 March 2025 – Okada Manila, the first integrated resort in the Philippines to earn the Forbes VERIFIED Responsible Hospitality badge, is set to participate in Earth Hour on March 22, 2025. The resort will join millions around the world in switching off lights to raise awareness for environmental protection.

As part of its ongoing commitment to sustainability, Okada Manila will be joining the "Biggest Hour for Earth" by dimming lights in common areas, switching off its façade lighting, and turning off The Fountain's lighting system. In addition to these efforts, the resort has arranged a series of engaging activities throughout the resorts for guests to enjoy and participate in, including a special storytelling session and a fun-filled scavenger hunt at PLAY Kids' Club. Guests will also be treated to a special vegan station at Medley Buffet, complimentary Earth Hour-themed pastries, and complimentary drinks at the casino floor.

Okada Manila will join millions around the world in switching off lights to raise awareness for environmental protection.

Okada Manila continues to lead the way in responsible hospitality through its sustainability program, Okada Green Heart. This initiative focuses on energy efficiency, waste reduction, and other eco-conscious practices across the entire resort, with energy efficiency as one of its key pillars. Earth Hour provides an ideal opportunity for the resort to further highlight its dedication to reducing its environmental footprint while inspiring guests to get involved in creating a more sustainable world.

The Retreat Spa, a Forbes five-star-rated spa for the third consecutive year, cultivates select herbs and produce on-site, promoting fresh and healthy ingredients in spa treatments and refreshments.

As a recognized leader in sustainable tourism, Okada Manila's commitment to eco-friendly practices underscores its role in advancing environmental responsibility within the hospitality industry. The resort's participation in Earth Hour is just one of the many steps it is taking toward a more sustainable future for the planet.
