

Okada Manila secures health security verification from Forbes Travel Guide and Sharecare
Asia's grand icon fortifies its health and safety standards with VERIFIED® certification

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ENTERTAINMENT CITY, PHILIPPINES — Okada Manila recently announced its official status as a Sharecare Health Security VERIFIED® destination. Together with Forbes Travel Guide, digital health leader Sharecare awarded the VERIFIED® certification badge to the Forbes five-star integrated resort.

This accreditation further verifies that Okada Manila is equipped with proper and comprehensive safety protocols that prevent the spread of infectious diseases. Guests can book and stay in the resort with complete confidence, allowing them to enjoy five-star experiences in the safest possible manner.

The assessment covered the following sections: health and hygiene protocols, physical distancing, administration, and proper communication with guests and employees.

Okada Manila joins an impressive list of 134 VERIFIED® hotels and resorts worldwide. It is one of only three properties in the Philippines to secure this certification.

Okada Manila launched its "True Clean. True Safe. True Heart." (3T) campaign in June, ensuring guest of safe and satisfying stays. Since then, the resort has consistently improved its approach to protect not just its guests but also its team members from potential exposure to COVID-19.

In September, Okada Manila introduced its roster of state-of-the-art disinfection robots to keep the resort safe and free from harmful elements.
