

US$ 2.4 Billion Okada Manila's preview set for Dec 21

MANILA, Philippines, December 9, 2016 – Okada Manila, the country's largest world-class integrated resort, is officially turning on the holidays as it gives a glimpse of the most anticipated 44-hectare property on December 21.

Okada Manila's preview event will host a Christmas concert featuring world-class performances from top Filipino artists Lani Misalucha, Regine Velasquez and Bamboo. The concert is free and open to the public. Complimentary transport service will also be provided from SM Mall of Asia to shuttle guests to the property during the preview event.

There will be a spectacular firework display beautifully enhanced with laser light show that can be seen as far as Quezon City. This spectacle of lights is the first of its kind in Manila and a preview to what guests can expect from the newest and the most magnificent hospitality and entertainment complex in Asia.
