

Okada Manila Welcomes Casino Veteran Andy Chang to its Senior Management Team

Manila, Philippines, 3 August 2016—Okada Manila has named Andy Chang as its new Chief Marketing Officer for Gaming. He will lead the marketing initiatives and strategic direction, focusing on local and international markets, of the integrated resort's casino operations.

Chang has over 20 years of experience and expertise in the hospitality and gaming businesses in the United States and Asia, including stints with MGM International and Pan Global Partner, the holding company for Hilton Waikoloa Hotel and Double Tree Waikiki.

Chang previously became part of the pre-opening team of Wynn Las Vegas and Wynn Macau as Senior Vice-President before he spent three years with Sands China as Executive Vice-President handling local and international market operations. Prior to joining Okada Manila, he served as Executive Vice-President in Resorts World Sentosa.

"As we get closer to the opening of our property, we need leaders like Andy with highly specialized skills in marketing and world-class experience. We believe that he will be a tremendous asset to the company as we look to launch an iconic property in the Philippines," explains Okada Manila Chief Operating Officer Takahiro Usui.
